

EARTH DAY & ENERGY FAIR

Poetry Competition

Fifth
Year!

Are you a budding poet and know it! Share your creative writing and your love for nature in our Earth Day & Energy Fair Poetry Contest.

What: A judged poetry competition and a stage in which to present them

Who: All students in Douglas County, ages 6-18 years old. Adults will compete in a separate division.

What is accepted: Any form of student Poetry, Haiku, Limerick, or Rap. Six Theme Categories:
"Nature & Wildlife", "Conservation"
"Water, energy, and resources"
"Seasons", "Mother Earth", and "Recycling"

New: Adults are welcome to enter submissions this year!
Theme for adults: "Earth: We Belong to It"

Where to submit work: Take to the nearest Public Library and leave with

- Submissions will be evaluated by a panel of qualified judges
- The poets of the top selections in each category will receive prizes and read their work at this year's Earth Day & Energy Fair on April 25th
 - Selections may be included on the Earth Day Website
 - Contact Chris McCullough if you have questions 440-4350

Sponsored by Douglas County Public Works, Ingram Book and the Umpqua Valley Poets

Please Print on Recycled Paper